Moroccan cuisine at Renoir

BY JULIAN ARMSTRONG, THE GAZETTE

Dine Moroccan style at Hotel Sofitel's Renoir restaurant from next Monday through Oct. 9 on a special menu designed by chef Hicham Hassan of the Sofitel Fes. This taste of Morocco, to be prepared by the hotel's executive chef Deff Haupt, is available at both lunch and dinner and has as its principle dish a spiced duck tagine.

The four-course dinner menu, priced at $48, also includes entrees of lamb flavoured with mint and served with a date sauce, red mullet in a pastry crust served with an orange sauce, and a rosewater flavoured dessert containing pistachio nuts. Tea and pastries are included.

At lunch, you can choose two of the dishes from the dinner menu for $32. To reserve at Renoir, 1155 Sherbrooke St. W., call 514-285-9000.
