FALL INTO MONTREAL

The charming Quebec city of Montreal is just a short plane flight across the border. Several new fall packages, with rates good through Dec. 31, make a weekend trip hard to resist.

For starters, more than 20 hotels — including the Sofitel Golden Mile and the InterContinental — are offering discounts. Between now and Oct. 15, take 50 percent off the cost of your third night. Beginning Oct. 16, the discount applies to your second night.

There's also the Tourisme Montreal for Foodies Package (rates starting at $115 per night), which includes passes for free public transportation, coupons for free treats and discounts at local foodie finds, in addition to accommodations.

Tourisme Montreal's LGBT Package (rates starting at $121 per night) includes discount coupons for dining and drinks at gay hot spots around town.

For complete terms and conditions of these deals, plus information on planning your trip, visit tourisme-montreal.org.
